

George A. Rumsey and P. E. Mcweeney, and at the meeting of directors Dr. E. A. Mcweeney was made president, G. A. Rumsey, vice-president, and M. D. McMahon, treasurer. The condition of the bank as disclosed by the report of the treasurer shows assets of $225,379.44 with capital surplus of $150,000, which together with the paid-up capital stock constitutes a reserve guarantee fund of $225,000, or more than 10 per cent. of the deposits, notwithstanding that the State banking laws require a reserve of only 10 per cent. Further protection is afforded by the double liability of the stockholders. This bank has always paid four per cent. interest to its depositors, but no dividend was declared to the stockholders. It was unanimously voted to carry all stock earnings for the year to the reserve fund to further strengthen the security for the depositors. The treasurer's report shows 46 saving depositors and 22 commercial accounts.
